

Privacy Policy
(Effective August 1, 2014)

If you request an annual letter for your donation(s) for tax purposes, we will securely collect your name, address, and telephone number. Your e-mail address and telephone number may be used by Church of the Transfiguration if we need to contact you regarding your offering, but will not be stored by Church of the Transfiguration. No other information will be tracked or stored by Church of the Transfiguration. Your information is never shared with any third party organization or group. If there is a problem with a processed donation and you need assistance, or if you have any other questions, please contact Church of the Transfiguration:
